EVALUATIVE CRITERIA

The area of purposes and objectives is the most fundamental of all the eight areas to be surveyed. The accrediting association judges an institution not by comparison with other sound institutions, which may legitimately vary in many respects, but primarily by the degree to which each institution's avowed purposes are matched by actual practice in the eight broad areas included in any school's framework: Community Involvement, Faculty, Instruction, Library, Laboratories, Physical Plant, Student Services and Administration. Thus, while one accredited school may be better than another, both schools are granted accreditation because their actual educational practices are in basic agreement with their professed purposes and objectives. Purposes and Objectives express what the institution claims to be. These are specified by goals it has set up to attain which are also the final criteria it wishes to be judged by. Only its actual practices can and will reveal to what extent it has actually become what it professes to be.

A. Statement of Purposes and Objectives of the Institution

An institution's purposes and objectives will determine the school's policies regarding the acceptance of students and the instructional program/s it will offer. These purposes and objectives should be determined in the light of the needs of the clientele which it intends to serve as well as the needs of the community in which it exists. They should be formulated not only for the institution as a whole, but also for the particular college/s for which accreditation is sought. These purposes and objectives should be clearly stated in a catalogue or prospectus which is readily available to prospective students and other persons concerned.

The institution should include among its objectives a well-integrated program for the development of moral character and personal discipline in its students. It should also insure the completion by its students of an adequate program of general education on the collegiate level, the guidance of each student towards the discovery of a satisfying and community-oriented vocation in life, and the development by each student of responsible attitudes as a citizen of the Philippines.

B. Specific Objectives for PT/OT

Within the framework imposed by the general purposes mentioned earlier, each institution is free to choose the specific objectives for each individual college and course. Not only is this freedom recognized by PAASCU; its exercise is actually encouraged. Such specific objectives, of course, should be seen by PAASCU as attainable and educationally sound.

C. *Acceptance by the Faculty

There should be unmistakable evidence that the current faculty, by and large, subscribe to the purposes and objectives of the institution and that the institution orients new faculty members to the essential purposes of the institution soon after their appointment.

D. *Agreement Between Purposes and Objectives and their implementation

The agreement between the stated purposes and the practices of the institution should be apparent. Purposes, to be effective, must be so directly related to the corresponding activities of the institution that they determine what those activities shall be. The institution should cease to claim purposes to which it cannot direct its activities. Any claims made by the institution itself regarding the value and validity of its purposes, whether those claims be made in the college catalogue or in any form of public announcement, should be easily verifiable.

EXPLANATION

The Evaluation Survey Team should fill out Divisions A to C of this Form before undertaking the survey of the other areas. The other areas will be evaluated in light of the purposes and objectives professed by the college under survey, (e.g., Liberal Arts, Business, etc.) and the entire institution of which the college is a part. Thus, the Evaluation Survey Team -- as well as the faculty committees which join in the work -- should be aware of the information supplied in this Form and should keep it in mind as they inspect the various features and activities of the college.

This section on purposes and objectives indicates, not necessarily what the college already is, but what it is in the process of becoming. The last part of the preceding statement should be carefully distinguished from mere hopes, promises or plans, in answering the question which follows below.

"Is there harmony between the actual educational practices and activities as seen in this college and the purposes and objectives?" is the important question that serves as an indicator of fidelity to the purposes and objectives for the survey of the other areas. The propositions contained within Divisions A, B and C of the Survey Form describe necessary conditions for requesting accreditation. The Evaluation Survey Team should be assured that these conditions are met in the course offering before directing the survey of the other seven areas.

Parentheses ( ) are placed to the left of the propositions. If the proposition is verified in the institution or college, place the symbol E; if doubtfully verified, place the symbol S (to some extent only); if not verified, use the symbol M for missing.

A. Academic Qualifications

The educational background of faculty members should be adequate for teaching on the college level; it should include graduate studies or their equivalent; e.g. outstanding achievement or years of experience in the field of specialization.*

B. Educational and Professional Experience and Length of Service

The staff should have experience in college teaching gained by years of service, as well as the vigor and enthusiasm characteristic of youth.**

C. Selection Policies

In the selection of individual faculty members the academic requirements of the government are taken into consideration. It is a cooperative process involving the administration, department heads, area chairpersons and other faculty members. Terms of faculty appointment are expressed in writing. Attention should be given to teaching ability, character, personality and health. The faculty members should have personal integrity, broad general scholarship, extensive preparation in their special fields, professional expertise and competence in communication skills. Before acceptance into the staff, each member should produce evidence of adequate preparation for his particular task and the possession of such personal traits requisite to teaching and to associating with youth. He should be informed of the objectives of the institution and show willingness to subscribe to them.

D. Ranking and Promotion

A college should have a definite system of ranking and tenure, which is clearly described in the Faculty Handbook. Criteria for promotion include teaching ability, publication of scholarly works, special services to the college and/or department, further educational attainment, community involvement, and commitment to the purposes and objectives of the College. Recommendations of the administration, faculty members, and students are considered in the application of the criteria. The system of tenure provides for an adequate probationary period.

* The normal qualification for a college teacher is the possession of a master's degree.

** A teacher will be considered as satisfying the norm of "experience" if he has had three (3) years of satisfactory college teaching in his or her major subject or three (3) years of successful practice in his profession before appointment.

A written notice of any change or retention of status is given to faculty members early enough before the end of the probationary period.

Definite procedures for separation/dismissal are clearly stated in the Faculty Handbook and duly observed in the separation/dismissal of faculty members.

E. Teaching Assignment

The percentage of full-time instructors should be sufficiently large to insure effective instruction and constant guidance of students.*

The members of the faculty should be given teaching assignments in the field of their major or minor lines of specialization.

The teaching load of faculty members should not be so heavy as to prevent sufficient preparation for classes, adequate evaluation of student achievement or professional growth of the teachers themselves.**

The number of staff members should be adequate for the educational programs offered, the school's enrollment, and the special needs of the students.

F. Performance Evaluation

There should be regular performance evaluation of faculty members using instruments acceptable to the faculty and following criteria involving teaching competence, research and community involvement.

G. Faculty Development

A college should have a long-term Faculty Development Program which takes into account provisions for scholarships, leaves of absence, research grants, etc.

A college must have professionally alert and progressive faculty members, as evidenced by their membership in professional or learned organizations, productive scholarship, and attendance at regular and special faculty meetings. Individual and school efforts towards the professional growth of staff members should be extensive and effective.

** Normally, a teacher should not have a teaching load of more than 21 hours a week. His other commitments should not be such as will adversely affect his instructional performance in the college.

H. Faculty Relationships

Provisions should be made for faculty participation in the formulation of purposes and objectives, in policy-making, and in the evaluation of curricular and other programs of the college.

Satisfactory relationships should exist among faculty members, and between faculty members and administration, students and other sectors of the community.

I. Salaries and Fringe Benefits

Salaries should be such as to assure a living standard in conformity with the social demands of the profession. The members of the faculty must receive just compensation calculated to attract and retain qualified instructors and professors.

A college must provide some types of recognition to reward faculty members who have rendered long, efficient, and devoted service to the college, by having a system of financial and promotional advancement for the members of the faculty.

The institution should have a social security program which includes retirement plans, separation pay and special awards.

EVALUATIVE CRITERIA

A. *Program of Studies

The program of studies required and implemented by the college should meet prescribed standards. It should work towards the specific objectives of the institution and of the courses concerned. The program of studies should provide for a curriculum with clear-cut goals for human and national development and for practical experience directly related to the professional roles for which the students are being prepared. Provision should be made for a planned periodic reassessment of the curriculum in which both faculty and students are involved.

B. *Instructional Procedures

The methods used in imparting instruction are employed with a view to guiding the student's self-realization through the development of his analytical and critical judgment and the stimulation of his social awareness. They are adapted to subject matter, situational needs and individual differences, and are conducted on a collegiate level. A variety of instructional procedures is normally to be expected, such as lectures, team-teaching, group techniques, etc. The college should make judicious use of a number of teaching devices, such as audio-visual aids, modern information technology, etc.

C. *Classroom Management

The rules and practices relating to classroom management should be conducive to effective instruction and should be carefully observed. Measures should be taken to ensure the punctual attendance of faculty members in their scheduled classes. Student absences should not exceed the number specified by the institution. Records of these absences should be kept.

Overcrowding of classrooms should be avoided. The number of students should be appropriate to the size and acoustics of the room.*

Proper discipline should be maintained. The classroom atmosphere should be conducive to learning.

* Class sizes will be considered satisfactory if they remain within the following limits:

for ordinary lecture courses involving recitation -- 45 students for language courses -- 40 students for science courses -- 20 students per laboratory assistant for purely lecture classes -- depending on proper physical facilities

D. Clinical Internship

It is at least a 10- to 11-month rotation program in different accredited training rehabilitation centers under the supervision of a board certified physiatrist. In the internship training program the students develop professional skills by a systematic application of scientific knowledge to actual clinical situations in the hospitals and accredited rehabilitation centers.

Clinical coordinators are expected to plan, organize and evaluate the clinical internship program. The learning experience of the interns is supervised by clinical supervisions of the respective centers in accordance to prescribed staffing and supervision guidelines of the Commission on Higher Education.

E. Academic Performance of Students

Students' response to instruction should be evaluated according to procedures which ensure a just appraisal of student performance. Individual differences (the exceptional, the slow but persevering student) should be considered. Graphs should be drawn up showing percentages of promotions and failures.

F. Supervision for Effective Instruction

Supervision of instruction should include such practical measures as: requirement of syllabi, visits to classes, informal dialogues with faculty and students, evaluation of tests and examinations (both of questions and of the manner of correcting papers). The faculty should be encouraged to join seminars and educational associations, and to experiment, where feasible, with new approaches in teaching.

G. Instructional Administration

This area covers such matters as: coordination of curriculum offerings; their development and management; the adoption of the proper textbooks; the organization of the faculty into departments, or the like, to promote effectiveness of instruction.

The adequacy of the curriculum offerings, their development and management, and effective instructional supervision shall be the criteria of excellence.

H. Co-curricular Activities

Co-curricular activities should be given a proportionate role in the overall academic program. A well-rounded student personality should result from participation in such a program.

I. Academic Counseling

The students should be oriented on the availability of academic guidance and counseling. Persons in charge of academic counseling are available to the students for consultation.

Criteria:

Laboratories are an essential part of the curricular programs of an institution. They include not just the space but also the supplies, equipment and features desired of good laboratories to help attain course objectives.

A. Rooms

Science rooms should be spacious, well-ventilated, well-lighted and safe. Furniture arrangement should not obstruct traffic and facilities should be readily available when needed.

Science lecture rooms should have adequate space and provisions for appropriate demonstrations and exhibits.

Since the laboratory is a potential source of accidents and fires due to certain equipment and heat sources, a periodic safety check is needed. Safety checks include removal of possible causes of accidents and provisions for fire-fighting equipment. First-aid facilities should be ready for immediate use.

There should be special laboratories adequately equipped to meet the needs of the science courses for which they are intended. Particular needs for courses in Natural Science, Chemistry, Physics and Computer should be met.

B. Equipment and Supplies

There should be adequate equipment and supplies for each of the laboratory courses offered by the college to allow students to work in small groups. The apparatus, tools and materials should conform at least to the minimum requirements of the Commission on Higher Education and to such other standards as may be set to achieve the specific objectives of the college and of the science courses offered.

C. Maintenance and Improvement

The college should not only continually maintain its science laboratory facilities and equipment in good condition; it should also manifest its alertness to educational progress in scientific fields by the improvement and expansion of its facilities and by the acquisition of up-to-date laboratory equipment, apparatus and supplies.

Laboratory assistants or technicians are indispensable members of the laboratory staff; they relieve the classroom professor from routine maintenance and record-keeping duties.

D. PT Laboratory

The PT Laboratory is a fully equipped room for the purpose of providing instruction and practice to the students in the proper application of PT modalities.

E. Laboratories for Clinical Internship

These include hospital, community and other accredited training rehabilitation centers which provide the students opportunities to correlate theoretical knowledge to practice in different situations based on the needs of patients.

F. GROSS ANATOMY LABORATORY

The Gross Anatomy Laboratory must have adequate provisions to educate students in basic human anatomy to establish anatomical landmarks that may later be used to aid medical diagnoses.

EXPLANATION

A college should have adequate laboratory facilities and equipment for effective instruction. The Analysis and Evaluation portions in this Survey Form are designed to discover the extent to which the laboratories of the college or institution under survey conform to this general criterion.

The laboratories to be surveyed are those in use by the students of the college or institution applying for accreditation. Even though more than one college of the institution make use of the same laboratories, judgment, however, concerning the adequacy of space, equipment and supplies, the courses and number of classes using the laboratories should be kept in mind.

ANALYSIS

Within the parentheses ( ) preceding the items given under Analysis, place one of the following letter symbols:

- E provision or condition is made extensively
- S provision or condition is moderately extensive
- L provision or condition is very limited
- M provision or condition is missing but needed
- O provision or condition is not desirable or does not apply

Space is provided at the end of the Analysis portion for indicating additional items which contribute to a fuller description of the laboratories.

EVALUATION

Evaluations represent the best judgment of those making the evaluations after all the evidence has been considered. They are to be made by means of the rating scale as defined below:

- 5 - Excellent:
  - the provisions or conditions are extensive and are functioning excellently.
- 4 - Very Good:
  - a. the provisions or conditions are extensive and are functioning well, or
  - b. the provisions or conditions are moderately extensive but are functioning excellently.

3 - Good:

the provisions or conditions are moderately extensive and are functioning well.

2 - Fair:

a. the provisions or conditions are moderately extensive but are functioning poorly, or

b. the provisions or conditions are limited in extent but are functioning well.

1 - Poor:

the provisions or conditions are limited in extent and are functioning poorly.

M - Missing:

the provisions or conditions are missing but needed.

O - Does not apply:

the provisions or conditions are missing but do not apply or are not desirable.

COMMENTS

In the space allotted for comments, the Survey Team should include any remarks concerning matters not sufficiently treated in the preceding Analysis and Evaluations and which could be taken into consideration in the overall evaluation of the laboratories. Where there is need, the Survey Team should use this space for the explanation of the use of the symbols M and O in the Analysis and the Evaluations just made. The Survey Team should always remember that the laboratories should be adequate "for the attainment of the objectives of the college."

BEST FEATURES

In the space provided, list briefly the strengths of the school/program in this particular area.

RECOMMENDATIONS

In the space provided, indicate proposed changes or plans to further improve this area.
